Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.

FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1905.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

3,430

It's only a question of a little time when General Kastoff, the new governor general of Moscow, will be cast-off.

The death of a Brooklyn base ball magnate was due to heart failure. A team that plays like Brooklyn would give most anybody the palpitation.

Our puzzle department is unable to answer the questions. How old is Anne? nor When will the library be built?—Lyndonville Journal.

Can any one in Barre answer the questions?

Montpelier's vanity was tickled when it learned that an agent visiting there got lost on upper Main street. It was Montpelier's size, you know, not anything else that was responsible for his perplexity.

A VACATION EARNED.

The granite manufacturers have earned the vacation which they are taking at the present time. Holding the nose to the grindstone of business the year around, with scarcely a let-up from January 1 to January 1, is wearing work on the men engaged in the granite business. The average granite manufacturer is not so situated as most business men are who have managers sufficiently conversant with the industry in general and the firm's work in particular that they are able to carry along the business when their employers are away. In most of the stone plants of the city the owners are the managers, and the managers are the only persons who can figure on the contracts as they come in, while the general oversight of the cutting is in their hands also. The manufacturer carries a heavy load, in which the worry of conducting a credit business bears down particularly severe. This shutdown of two days, during which they either go to Quiney or take a relaxation at home, is one of the few instances in which they enjoy a vacation in the whole year. Perhaps the majority of the manufacturers are not in a financial position to shift a part of this burden to the shoulders of managers, but that is the tendency. Meanwhile a little play mixed in with the hard work will not be amiss.

SECRETARY IRONSIDE REPLIES.

To Statements Recently Printed in Italian Paper.

To the Organized Workmen of Barre: It is my duty as a trades unionist and socialist to defend myself from such attacks as a recent number of the Cronaca-Soverrina or local anarchist publication contains. I have only been a member of this community for the past five years, and to my knowledge have never spied or acted as a ruffian toward man, woman or child in this city. I have done the best I know to perform the duties which the Barre Branch Granite Cutters National Union has delegated me to do. As secretary of the C. L. U. my colleagues will bear me out when I say that it has always been my endeavor to promote to the best of my ability the interests of organized labor in this city. As to a "drunken revelry" which our friends seem to know so well about, let me say that it is the expressive wish and desire of the members of the entertainment committee to live strictly to the statute laws enacted by the past legislature—we ask for nothing but what our state laws allow. The scurrilous and uncalled for insult to our honored "mayor" must bring the blush of shame to every honest citizen who has the good weal of our city at heart. As to inviting Attorney General Fitts to the banquet, I have no apologies to make. The working men and women of this city are all aware of the fact that as a representative in the last legislature Mr. Fitts introduced and carried through in the teeth of considerable opposition a bill known as "The Child Labor Bill." This bill makes it compulsory not to employ in mills and factories children under 16 years of age, with the various clauses attached to the bill is pointed out as the best if its kind in the United States. This and this only is the reason for the presence of Attorney General Fitts at the banquet. The degrading, abominable name given to our superintendent of streets, Mr. Fred Bruce, makes one pall with horror at the audaciousness of the writer, and if such matters as this are to be allowed in our public press the quicker it is nipped in the bud the better it will be for the public welfare. As to inviting State's Attorney S. H. Jackson and Representative Herbert Pope, it was the unanimous opinion of the "entertainment committee" that inasmuch as they were prominent officials of the state and city government, and had frequently by advice and effort helped to raise the surrounding conditions of the general public, i. e., in relation to city privileges, and improvement of laws, it would be only courtesy to invite them to partake of our hospitality at a time when organized labor was in convention in our city. Last, but not least, who is scored by our friends the anarchists, is, Editor George Smith of the Vermont

Union Signal, and at present representative for Rutland city. Where this writer gets his information that "George" is a member of the socialist party is more than I can comprehend, and I hasten to correct his mistake. But I wish to state right here from all that I know of See, Smith he is one of the most generous hearted and earnest workers in the labor movement in this state. To brand such men with the name of spies and ruffians merely goes to show that the writer must have had a bad attack of the blues after fretting himself crazy over that "drunken revelry" which he gloriously depicts to his admiring followers as the crime of the century. I leave these charges buried against Smith and I to the general body of organized workmen in this city to decide, feeling sure that if any mistake has been made they will surely let us know. Sincerely hoping that the great cause of labor will steadily grow in our city, and country despite the cries and sneals of a few disgruntled anarchists, I am, fraternally yours, ALEX. IRONSIDE, 32 Ayres Street, Barre, Vt.

Notice.

Sunday picnickers are notified that the discharge of firearms, and that games, sports, plays and dances are strictly in violation of the law. All who are accustomed to attend such picnics must govern themselves accordingly. Patrick Brown, Chief of Police.

WHEN SHOULD MEN RETIRE?

See the Signed Editorial Symposium in the Boston Sunday Globe.

The great variety of subjects treated in the Household department of the Sunday Globe, and the clear and explicit manner in which they are presented make that part of the paper a magazine of unrivaled excellence. Next Sunday the variety of subjects will be unusually striking.

Delicious Summer Salads.

How to Serve Summer Vegetables.

Midsummer Preserves.

In the above are included cucumber and bean salad, mock chicken salad, salad dressings, walnut catsup, pickled walnuts, raspberry jam, etc.

SOMETHING REALLY

NEW IN FICTION

is what the public has been looking for for a long time. That "something" has at last arrived. You will find the first installment of it in next Sunday's Globe.

"A Maker of History."

By E. Phillips Oppenheim.

a romance of the Russo-Japanese war. An unusually strange love story, a still stranger heroine, and villains high up in the diplomatic world. It will keep you on tenterhooks while you are reading it, because you will want to find out

What the hero knew that was worth millions to the German government?

Why were German spies on his trail?

Why were France, England and Russia all eager to lay hands on Gladys Fynton and her brother?

SAFETY.

The careless man is likely to keep his valuable papers, insurance policies, deeds and notes stored in his desk or in the bureau drawer, where they are not protected in case of fire and where they may be easily mislaid or overlooked.

The careful man avoids risk and worry by renting a
